Dearest Raji and dearest Kaushik,

Today we all of us remember Sunder, with both sadness and joy, but above all with love, and gratitude for the life he led and the love he gave us.

Kaushik, I understand so well your anguish that Appa is not around to celebrate your Professorship. But he is, you know. Years ago, when you appeared in a MH play, he suddenly got up in his seat, pointed at you, and told the world in general: "That's my son!" I bet he did that, from wherever he is, when you became Professor.

Our thoughts are with you.
